

Einstein STEM Camp: Scientific Inquiry

Mr. King and International Baccalaureate High School instructor Dan Rott to teach you fun and exciting science this summer! This summer we will learn about the inquiry of science. Science is ultimately the study of asking and answering questions: why do things happen in the environment and on our planet and how do they happen? These questions and many more will be answered through explorative, fun, and interactive activities. Invite your friends and we will see you there! Space is limited, please register online at einsteinstemcamp.weebly.com.
